What is SEL?

→ Social-emotional learning (SEL) is a systematic approach to developing CASEL's five core SEL competencies:

- Self-awareness
- Self-management
- Social awareness
- Relationship skills
- Responsible decision-making

→ SEL is an intentional effort to help our students acquire the necessary abilities and mindset to:

- understand and manage their emotions
- set and achieve goals
- demonstrate kindness, empathy, and respect for others
- build meaningful and healthy relationships
- learn to use responsible-decision making

Why SEL?

According to research efforts by CASEL and other leading experts, incorporating school-wide SEL can reveal noticeable benefits such as:

INCREASE IN POSITIVE
classroom behavior
and overall greater sense of well-being
